4. Transponders

During the Boels Ladies Tour transponders will be used for the electronic identification of the riders. Dutch riders will be expected to use their own KNWU-registered transponder, whereas foreign riders will be provided with a transponder by the organization. The transponders will be distributed to the team manager at the registration of the teams. The transponders must be returned after the last stage in the permanence in Sittard. For missing transponders the team will be charged for € 100 . Note that the transponders must be used also on the time trial bikes during the prologue (stage 1) and the individual time trial (stage 3).

5. Radio Frequency

Race information will be broadcast on the following frequency: 155.9375.

6. Signing Attendance List

Every day all riders have to sign the attendance list at the ceremony truck before the start of the stage.

7. Jerseys

The riders wearing a jersey of one of the classifications and also the Women's World Tour leader, the Women's World Tour Young Rider leader, World champion, European champion, the Olympic champion and the national champions are requested to present themselves on the first row at the start of every stage. The national time trial champions must ride in their national champion's jersey in stages 1 and 3.

8. Results

The results will be published on the website www.boelsrentalladiestour.nl, immediately after each stage. Moreover, the results will be sent by email to the team managers. For the time trial stages 1 and 3, live results will be published at www.cyclingonline.info/results. A hardcopy of all results will be available at the permanence before the start of each stage. The package also includes the order of the team manager's cars in the stage, plus the tracking numbers for the cars.

9. Environment

A clean environment is important and essential for the organization of the Boels Ladies Tour. As such, we make an urgent call to the riders, team managers, service personnel and all other attendance in the race, not to dispose garbage or materials on public roads, verges and ditches.

10. Contact

For all questions please report to the permanences of the stages. For urgent matters during the event, the organization (Thijs Rondhuis) can be reached by phone: +31 622 900 131, 24 hours per day.
